

House Resolution No. 3171

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize the highly acclaimed and world-renowned artist Alan J. Slater of London, England, who is soon to visit Missouri; and

Whereas, famous for his landscape and still life paintings, Alan Slater will present a landscape painting to the City of Slater on May 10, 2007, in recognition of the name both he and the city share; and

Whereas, in honor of the artist Alan Slater's presence in their fair town, the residents of the City of Slater will hold an art exhibition from May 10 through May 12, 2007, consisting of artwork produced by local artists and students; and

Whereas, Alan Slater's work is presented in private collections in North America, Scandinavia, and throughout the United Kingdom, as well as mainland Europe; and

Whereas, Alan Slater prepared for his chosen artistic endeavors in life by attending Art School in Cardiff, Wales, from 1975 to 1979, during which time he studied with Harry Holland, Terry Setch, Michael Crowther, and Steve Young; and

Whereas, Alan Slater is a founding member of the Tideswell Group, an organization of landscape painters based in rural Derbyshire, England:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our sincerest gratitude to the eminent British artist Alan Slater on the occasion of his visit to the town of Slater, Missouri, and for his generous gift to the City of Slater; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. Alan J. Slater as a measure and expression of our esteem.
